

WELCOME TO CLUB ARNAGE

The oldest and most established internet forum dedicated to the Le Mans 24 Hours race

Club Arnage originated in 1995 as a free meeting point and information source for Le Mans enthusiasts, equally available for those who attend the race, those who wish to attend, and those who are unable to attend.

Now in it's 13th year, the forum has thrived and grown to become the oldest forum dedicated to Le Mans, and is renowned for friendship, openness, humour, honest information and the absence of advertising and commercial gain.

Club Arnage is a virtual home for everyone who shares the many and various dreams and interests that make up the Le Mans 24-hour race, endurance racing as a whole and much else besides that takes their fancy.

The Le Mans Guide

Whether you are preparing to embark on your first trip to the 24 hour race or are a seasoned attendee, before you grab your car keys to head south make sure that you download the 2008 copy of The Club Arnage Guide to Le Mans; "Le Mans (not just) for Dummies".

Now in it's third year of publication it has quickly become the recognised definitive document for all those interested in, or attending the great race, being more comprehensive and more up-to-date than any comparable commercial publication.

The CA guide is produced by the membership and is provided free of charge to the public, although we do ask for donations to our supported charities.

A FRIENDLY CORNER IN LA SARTHE - WHEREVER YOU ARE!

Club Arnage is self-supporting via the sale of club merchandise, is free of any membership fees, and is unencumbered with any advertising material. Most importantly, it's also great fun – so why not join the forum and join the fun? See you in June!
